Boston, Nov. 1st 1876.

My darling child =

We expected to hear from you this morning, and are made uneasy by the disappointment. Perhaps you are sick and cannot write to us. If so, you should ask one of the ladies or one of your classmates to send us a line. It may be that you are only a little busy, lazy or something of that kind. At any rate, we want to hear from you once a week at least. This is the ultimatum of Papa.
