Contents

Introduction ................................................................. vi

1. Looking for the Sign of Jonah ........................................ 1

2. The Grace of Interruptions .......................................... 22

3. A Reflection after Visiting San Marco ......................... 27

4. How Do I Pray? ....................................................... 34

5. In the Company of Prophets:
   Living the Transfiguration ......................................... 45

6. Who Are the Poor and Why Are They Blessed? .......... 55

7. Mary and John the Baptist ......................................... 62

8. Who Will Step into the Empty Tomb? ......................... 77

9. Sacraments and Solidarity ........................................ 89

10. The Vows “from below” ........................................... 100

11. The Place Where the Church
    Experiments with Prayer ........................................... 113

12. The Consecrated Life .............................................. 124

13. Should We Reformulate the Religious Vows? ............. 138
14. Praying for Vocations and Evangelizing Life .................. 149
15. Holiness as Vocation...................................................... 157
16. We Never Stop Growing .............................................. 165
17. “But the Laborers Are Few”........................................... 171
18. New Vocations for a New World .................................... 179
20. Experiencing Priesthood Today ..................................... 201
21. Celibacy Under Siege ................................................... 210
22. Being a Missioner Without Leaving Home ..................... 218
23. Knowing Jesus as Only One Who Serves Can............... 227
24. “To serve Christ Alone in his Church”............................ 237
25. Asceticism and Vocational Awareness ........................... 247
27. Open Minds to the Mystery of God................................ 265
28. Eucharist and Vocation................................................ 274
29. “Lamp to My Feet, Light to My Path” ......................... 281
30. Mary—Vocation of the Mother,
                   Mother of the Vocation .............................................. 287

31. Consecrated Life and the Service of Peace .................. 294

32. Ecclesial Communion Is the Climate for Cultivating Vocations ........................................... 297

33. The Apostolate of Good Example Is Not Enough .......... 302

34. The Unfolding of a Vocation Is Not a Solitary Process .................................................... 311

35. What Does It Take to Awaken Desire? ...................... 319

36. Vocations and the Local Church ............................... 327

37. Vocation: A Particular Expression of God’s Love ....... 335

38. Touching Faith, Sustaining the Call ......................... 342

39. “We also believe, and so we speak” (2 Cor 4:13): A
             Reflection on Lumen fidei (The Light of Faith) ............... 352

40. “along the paths of ordinary life” .............................. 360

41. Perfectae caritatis Fifty Years Later ......................... 367

42. A Church Moving Outdoors ........................................... 377

43. Laudato Si’ and Vocational Awareness ...................... 385
44. Called to Live for God’s People................................. 393

45. Pope Francis as Vocational Model................................. 401

46. Uncertainty of Faith and the Certainty of Desire .......... 409

47. Paul: A Man Who Found His Vocation and a Vocation That Made the Man............................... 419