Submissions for Next Year

Parnassus welcomes submissions from Holy Cross students of any major. For next year’s journal, students from the class of 2016-2020 are eligible to submit. Pieces should relate to the study of the ancient world and should be understandable to a wide audience. Essays, poems, translations, creative pieces and artwork are all eligible for publication.

Submissions can be e-mailed to HCclassicsjournal@gmail.com, beginning in October 2016. Pieces will be reviewed after February 2017, and authors will be notified of acceptance at the beginning of March 2017. Authors of accepted articles will continue to work on their piece with an editor in the following month.
