†Jesuits

Note: Others like François de Montmorency Laval (1623-1708), who attended La Flèche and was Bishop of Quebec, and Richard Challoner (1691-1781), who attended Douai and was Vicar Apostolic of London, had a relationship to New England because of ecclesiastical jurisdiction. Also, Michael O’Connor (1810-1872), Bishop of Erie, and John J. Collins (1856-1934), Vicar Apostolic of Jamaica, were both Jesuits who taught in New England.
