Historical Background:

Xavier High School was a private college preparatory school located in Concord, MA which was opened in 1962 by the Jesuits of the New England Province. It remained in existence until 1971 when the Jesuits withdrew from the school. The academic records for Xavier are located at Boston College High School.

Scope and Content:

The Xavier High School collection contains correspondence, publications, financial information, house diaries, yearbooks and 1 photograph. There is one 2.5 inch box of restricted material. There is an oversize scrapbook (which was copied for the main files) which is noted in the finding aid. For a photograph of the faculty at Xavier High School, please see the Province Archives Record Group 12: Audiovisual: Photographs for Photographs Separated From Papers. There are also two magnetic recording tapes that have been placed with Record Group 12: Audiovisual: Tapes.
