Carissimi's Jephte

The College Choir will present Giacomo Carissimi's oratorio "Jephte" for the final concert of the year! This performance will feature Kyle Irvine '21 as Jephthah and Rose Grosskopf '20 as Filia, accompanied by a period instrument ensemble that includes Organ Scholars Lorraine Mihaliak '19, Michelle Sacco '21, and Matthew Luca '22. Join us in St. Joseph's Memorial Chapel on April 27th at 7:30pm!

Jesuit Masters of the Renaissance

On Friday, April 12th, the Holy Cross Chamber Singers presented a program comprised of music by Renaissance composers Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina and Tomas Luis de Victoria, both of whom had ties to the Society of Jesus. The following day, the group performed alongside Boston-based Renaissance ensemble Convivium Musicum at Trinity Lutheran Church, with each group sharing their own program followed by a collaboration on the Kyrie from Palestrina's "Missa Papae Marcelli" and Victoria's "Ave Maria a 8." In the words of Jacob Fisher, '21, "Singing with professionals really allowed for me to see the level of experience I have reached as a singer and the room I still have to grow." Overall, the concert was a great experience for all involved!

Music and the Jesuits

In celebration of the 175th anniversary of the founding of the College of the Holy Cross, the Department of Music hosted a concert celebrating members of the Society of Jesus and their contributions to and influence on music history. The concert was well attended and highly successful, and featured performances from many different Holy Cross musical ensembles, including the Chamber Orchestra and College Choir joining together to premiere a piece by Laurence Rosania, one of the College Chaplains. We are thankful for the 175th Anniversary Committee, the College Chaplains, the Department of Music, and especially for Music Professor Dan DiCenso '98, for all of their hard work in making this musical collaboration possible!

Tour Recap

THANK YOU to all of the alumni, family and friends who contributed to our 2019 Spring Break Tour! We had an amazing experience traveling, meeting alumni from all over the East Coast, and singing together in new spaces. This would not have been possible without all of your support! Here are some of our favorite memories:
