

Welcome to the Holy Cross Campus Poetry Walk. This temporary designated walking route through parts of our beautiful grounds highlights original poetry by Holy Cross students.

Approximate length:
1 mile

A digital version of the Poetry Walk is available for anyone wishing to enjoy this event virtually. Link:
crossworks.holycross.edu/poetry2021

An extension of this walk can be found along a nature trail in an undeveloped part of campus. It features poems by Louise Imogene Guiney, whose papers are held in the College's Archives and Special Collections

We are grateful to our partners

---

Student Affairs
Office of Sustainability
Montserrat
English Department
Campus Recreation
CAB

Holy Cross Libraries

Engage More. Discover More. Learn More.

College of the Holy Cross
Campus
Poetry
Walk

(Re)creating and Reconnecting through Creativity

April-September 2021

The path begins at Dinand Library and ends at the clock near the Hogan Campus Center, creating a loop through the center of campus. Most of the path is accessible, although at the end there are two stairways. An alternate path has been provided.

START

- 1 Dinand Library (seating area at side entrance)
- 2 Base of stairs to the Hoval
Ani Zhu / A Child Says

Proceed east along sidewalk, around Hoval (do not go up stairs)

- 3 Area at top of "grand staircase"
Sofia Keefe / Body and Blood

Proceed along Lower Easy Street

- 4 Triangle outside of Smith Hall
Finley Cassidy / The Days

Cross street (residence halls and poems will be on right)

- 5 Greenspace between Lehy and Hanselman
Grace Berlew / Encounters with the Deep
- 6 Greenspace at corner of Clark
Jenny Feraud / God's Unfailing Love
- 7 Greenspace at corner of Brooks
Kimberly Fetherston / Going to the Sun
- 8 Greenspace near entrance to Brooks
Elizabeth Halleron / Photograph of Hayden
- 9 Greenspace at bend in loop
Fortune Okundaye / I
- 10 Gate to McCarthy Lane
Adrian Coyle / Miracles

(across the street leads to a nature trail with poetry by Louise Imogene Guiney)

Continue on Easy Street, looping around Brooks

- 11 Greenspace at bend in loop
Alexander Thurber / More than a Neighbor

- 12 Bottom of stairs leading to Figge
Emily Foscaldo / Childhood Bliss

- 13 Stairs leading from Clark to parking lot
anon. / Mankind

- 14 Stairs leading from Hanselman to parking lot
Sophie Cassarino / Pretty Little Necklace

- 15 Stairs leading from Lehy to parking lot
anon. / Sonnet for Summer

- 16 Corner of Hogan Campus Center
Brendan Ryan / Listening to Aaron Copland While Driving Across America

Continue west in front of Hogan Campus Center

- 17 Hogan Campus Center
Tim Doyle / The Man Who Stood Still
- 18 First greenspace to the Jo
Aldona Casey / The Shades of Your Life
- 19 Corner of second greenspace/Class of 2020 Walkway
Milly O'Brien / To Become a Snow Leopard
- 20 Top of stairs to Wheeler
Angela Partusch / To Love a Shadow

To view Poems 21-24 requires the use of stairs. Alternatively, stay on street level and follow the sidewalk towards Hogan to finish at #25. Poems 21-24 may be accessed using the digital version.

Continue down stairs and around Wheeler

- 21 Bottom of stairs to Wheeler
Donnel Delva / Now My Mind is Like a Hungry Flower
- 22 Corner of Wheeler Beach
Grace Acquilano / Want to Get Skinny Fast?
- 23 Bottom of stairs near Wheeler side entrance
Dorien Steadman / Selma 1965: After Martin Luther King, Jr.

Go up stairs and follow sidewalk

- 24 Corner of path to library and Hogan
Paul Marchese '36/ In Closing
- 25 Hogan clock

FINISH