Congratulations to you and your friends on a job well done! We hope your future years will be as satisfying and challenging as your last four. May God grant you as much joy and happiness as you have given us.

May there always be work for your hands to do.
May your purse always hold a coin or two.
May the sun always shine on your windowpane.
May a rainbow be certain to follow each rain.
May the hand of a friend always be near you.
May God fill your heart with gladness to cheer you.

Congratulations and Best Wishes to you & your friends.

We are very proud of you.

Love,
Dad, Mom, Jorge, Eric

This day is mine to mar or make,
God keep me strong and true;
Let me no erring by-path take,
No doubtful action do.

Grant me when the setting sun
This fleeting day shall end,
I may rejoice o'er something done,
Be richer by a friend.

Let all I meet along the way
Speak well of me tonight,
I would not have the humblest say
I'd hurt him by a slight.

Let there be something true and fine
When night slips down to tell
That I have lived this day of mine
Not selfishly, but well.

Emerson said it well,
We wish you all of the following:

"To laugh of often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded."
Ralph Waldo Emerson

Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I-
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.”

OH BELIEVE ME!

Marylou, Charlie,
Chris, Maureen, Meg,
Suzie, then Kathy
and finally ............. Greg!

For twenty - odd years Millard tuitions were paid,
But Greg's graduation was somewhat delayed.

Truly determined to be a Brook's scholar.
To wring every cent out of each credit dollar.

Although older than most of his peers,
He thought he might stretch the term past four years.

He wanted a background, a solid foundation -
In the classics, he thought; so he took a vacation.

A sunny Greek isle, that was the place.
He could rest til he entered the G.P. race.

Winter in Worcester was a shock to his system,
When he thought of his Greek friends (you guessed it) he missed 'em.
“Oh believe me,” a few even claimed that he kissed 'em.

So anxious he was to excel in his studies,
He spent every night out with his friends and his buddies.

His reports o'er the years were rated outrageous.
Too bad that family grades weren't simply contagious!

But when it turned out he lacked a high cume,
Greg did not wallow in self pity and gloom.

Said he, “I'm not even a sophomore yet!”
This might not be the lowliest, cume that I get!

So with many nights out and a slob forum to thank,
His guess proved true; and in fact, his rank sank.

But he had so much fun and made so many friends,
That he learned quite a lot by the time his tale ends.

And, always a credit to the family tree -
He graduates college by age 23!

Marylou, Charlie,
Chris, Maureen, Meg
Suzie, then Kathy
and finally ............. Greg!
You've brought us joy - you've brought us love,
You're truly a blessing from God above;
And, now, our prayer for you, JOANNA RAE
As you approach your Graduation Day.
Is that your life will be filled with happiness
And the path you choose will be paved with success.

CONGRATULATIONS!
All our love,
Dad and Mum

CHRIS S
congratulations on a wonderful four years!
You've made us very proud. We wish you the best of everything in the future.

Love always -
Mom, Dad and Karen

To our parents,

Thank you for deeming us worth spending $100,000 on.
Thank you for the time that money bought us. Thank you for the four years of education, four years of memories, and four years of fun. Thank you for four years shared with the best of friends and for the lifetime of friendships to follow. Thank you for giving us more than we could ever have a right to expect. We can never begin to repay you.
Mother and I will always remember our first Parent’s Weekend at Holy Cross. You expressed to us, when you looked out your dormitory window, you found it hard to believe that you had left Milwaukee and all your friends. Mother and I now share that same feeling of astonishment. We remember you as our little girl, and now we see you as a well educated, bright, beautiful, Holy Cross graduate. Take your diploma in hand and walk down life’s road with God at your side.

Congratulations!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Pam too!

Kathleen Ann we gave you Family, because belonging gives you roots that stretch from where you were and are, to where you're going.

So whether you're years away or oceans away from those you love, you're never far from home.

We wish you the resolve to always keep learning, because knowledge gives you the power to understand. We wish you dreams, because unless you have dreams you'll never grow.

We wish you love because it is compassion, it is forgiveness, it magnifies your spirit and is priceless.

Congratulations - Princess

A MAN IS AS GREAT AS THE DREAMS HE DREAMS,
AS GREAT AS THE LOVE HE BEARS,
AS GREAT AS THE VALUES HE REDEEMS,
AND THE HAPPINESS HE SHARES.
A MAN IS AS GREAT AS THE THOUGHTS HE THINKS,
AS THE WORTH HE HAS ATTAINED,

AS GREAT AS THE HELP HE GIVES,
AS GREAT AS THE DESTINY THAT HE SEEKS,
AS GREAT AS THE LIFE HE LIVES.

To our son Ryan,

You have always made us proud, but this is by far our proudest moment. From your first day at Clark, every Parents Weekend, Holy Cross vs. Fordham in Limerick, the trips to Bucknell, Grill 23 and the Sole, the bookstore, four years varsity golf and all the memories of your time at the Cross, we will treasure them always.

Our wish for you is to continue making the right choices and a lifetime of happiness.

Congratulations to you and the class of '93

Loving you always, Mom & Dad.

Congratulations to my grandson; Ryan T. Kenny and the Class of '93
