My dear Jennie:

Your very kind and long letter of the 4th inst. received this evening. Since it seems out of the question that I ~~can~~ go home now, with you, I will make the best of our separation.

Perhaps when I see Mr. Wilson I can come to an understanding with him as to what is best. I wrote him a letter the other day. Give my regards to Mrs. Doyle and the other ladies Flynn & Plunket, well - send regards.

I will write to Searle tomorrow. Have you seen the letter I sent to Mrs. Mooney? I am to be repaid in kind, I suppose. Adieu to you love from Yours.
