Scholarships

Scholarship opportunities and application details are described on the CANE website. Please visit: www.caneweb.org

Funding Opportunities

Two sources of funding are open to CANE members.

Educational Programs funding is awarded to any group or sub-group of the membership to promote a program of interest designed to promote understanding of the Classics, pedagogy, or topics within ancient history. To apply for funds, a letter outlining the program and its goals, including the intended audience may be submitted to: Dr. Edward Zarrow, World Languages Department, Westwood High School, Westwood, MA 02090; 781-326-7500 x3372; tzarrow@westwood.k12.ma.us.

Discretionary Funds are awarded four times each year for supplies, ancillary materials, or enrichment materials that will enhance a particular project or curriculum, and for which other funding is unavailable.

The deadlines are: 1 October 2016; 1 January 2017; 1 April 2017; and 1 July 2017.

Applications may be submitted to:

Charles Bradshaw, 54 Potwine Ln., Amherst, MA 01002; 413-253-2055; cbradshaw@comcast.net.

The View from a Distance: Perspectives on the Greeks & Romans from across Space and Time

The organizers of the 2017 CANE Summer Institute invite you to join us for a week-long exploration of the Classical Greek and Roman worlds from the perspectives of outsiders – in both space and time.

In ten mini-courses, ten lectures, pedagogy workshops, reading groups, and a number of special events, we will consider the views and responses to Greece and Rome by contemporaneous “others” from around the ancient world, as well as reactions and adaptations of Greek and Roman culture in later literature and physical art.

For more information and to register, please visit the CANE Summer Institute website at <http://caneweb.org/csi>.
