Wlad Countess 2^d Brigade
At Ellis Ford
June 5. 1869

My Dear Jennie

I received your note acknowledging receipt of my letter and despatch from Old Camp. Our circumstances are so changed - we are so far off and so near the enemy - and it would be so difficult for you to set up here - and our stay here may be so short that I feel compelled to forego the joy of seeing you and our dear little pet. I feel dreadfully disappointed - but Hooker will have his way. I am well - and as you see in command of the Brigade again.
