No. 12 Mount St.
Boston Oct. 5/64

Major Gen. Perry Bone
Newbury Mass.
My Dear Major

This is to introduce to you Mr. Lee who was formerly an officer in my old command. He is now a sutler at the Cavalry depot near Washington and thinks there is some danger of his losing the place. He is a good fellow, and, added to his other excellent personal qualities, he did me great service when I was so badly wounded and lying in Washington.

Therefore it is that I give him this note to you and shall consider myself under obligations to you for any service which you may do him.

Respectfully
Your friend & servant
P. A. Guiney
Late Col 9th Mass.
