

College of the Holy Cross Library Services CrossWorks Submission Agreement

CrossWorks is an open-access institutional repository maintained by the College of the Holy Cross Library Services to collect, preserve and provide access to the scholarly and creative work produced by the Holy Cross Community. To properly administer this repository, contributors are asked to sign the CrossWorks Submission Agreement:

I grant to Holy Cross the non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license to use, display, distribute, or reproduce the deposited work(s) in any format or medium for inclusion in CrossWorks for non-commercial, research, educational or related academic purposes only. This agreement does not transfer copyright to Holy Cross. Other than this limited license, the Contributor or copyright holder retains all intellectual property rights to the work(s) and the responsibility for enforcing those rights.

I represent and warrant that the submission is my original work and, to the best of my knowledge, does not infringe on the rights of others. When using material created by others, my use complies with fair use of the copyright law and includes appropriate citations and/or permissions. The library has permission to withdraw the materials from CrossWorks without notice in the event such materials are alleged to have violated another's intellectual property rights or in the event the College determines doing so is in the best interest of the College.

I acknowledge that my work(s) may constitute an education record(s) and agree that such record(s) may be disclosed to library patrons for their informational purposes, subject to the disclosure limitations defined below.

I agree that Holy Cross may keep more than one copy of my work(s), which may be migrated to any medium or format for the purpose of preservation and access in the future.

My submission will be maintained in an open access online digital environment via CrossWorks, a service of the Holy Cross Library Services. My submission is intended for educational purposes only. This license shall not authorize the commercial use of the materials by Holy Cross or any other person or organization. Because materials on CrossWorks are available to anyone with internet access, I do not hold Holy Cross responsible for third party use of my submission.
