Historical Background:

The English Province of the Society of Jesus had been in charge of missionary work in Jamaica and supplying missionaries to Jamaica from 1837 until 1893. In 1893, Rome entrusted the Jamaican mission to the American Province of Maryland-New York after the English Provincial wrote to Rome requesting the change. Rome had just assigned the English Province the Zambezi, Africa, mission and the English Provincial determined that supplying two foreign mission sites would overextend the resources of the English Province.

In 1895, the Maryland-New York Province requested a clear distinction between the property owned by the Vicariate of Jamaica and that owned by the Society of Jesus. The long-time Bishop, Charles Gordon, S.J. appealed directly to the Sacred Congregation of Propaganda by writing to Cardinal Ledochowski.

In 1906, John J. Collins, S.J. became the Administrator Apostolic upon the retirement of Bishop Gordon. On January 14, 1907, an earthquake hit Jamaica ruining much of the city of Kingston and killing over 1,000 inhabitants. The earthquake toppled the Holy Trinity Cathedral, the main Catholic worship site on the island, where 20,000 Catholics worshipped. On October 13, 1907, Fr. Collins was appointed Vicar Apostolic and two weeks later was consecrated as Bishop. Bishop Collins made building a priority and the newly erected Holy Trinity Cathedral was completed in 1910. From 1908 until 1919, Bishop Collins erected nineteen places of worship throughout the island.

In 1919, William F. O'Hare, S.J. (of Boston) became Vicar Apostolic of Jamaica. The mission was near bankruptcy when he assumed office and within nine months, Bishop O'Hare had reduced the debt to half the original amount. In 1926, the New England Region separated from the Maryland-New York Province to form an independent Province. The Philippines were assigned to the Maryland-New York Province and Jamaica was assigned to the newly formed New England Province, although the New England Province did not assume administration duties of Jamaica until 1929.

Archives of the New England Province Society of Jesus

In 1927, Joseph N. Dinand, S.J. was named Vicar Apostolic of Jamaica, leaving his post as President of the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, MA to assume his new duties. Bishop Dinand was the first Vicar Apostolic from the newly created New England Province. In 1929, Bishop Dinand resigned his post due to ill health, however, he had begun work with Sister Humiliana of the Franciscans to set up a native religious congregation of sisters on the island. The Franciscan Missionary Sisters of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, the native Sisterhood group's new institution, was founded and began its ministry in 1929.

Also in 1929, the New England Province fully assumed the duties of administering the Jamaican mission. In 1930, Thomas A. Emmet, S.J. was named Vicar Apostolic. In 1950, John J. McEleney, S.J. became Vicar Apostolic, in 1956, he became the Bishop of Kingston, and in 1967, he was named Archbishop of Kingston-in-Jamaica. Samuel Carter, S.J. served as Auxiliary Bishop of Kingston-in-Jamaica from 1966 until 1970 when he became Archbishop of Kingston-in-Jamaica and served as such until 1996. Lawrence A. Burke, S.J. was appointed the 4th Archbishop of Kingston, Jamaica, in 2004 and served until his retirement in 2008.

Francis J. Kelly, S.J. served as Superior from 1925 until 1931 when Charles F. Arnold, S.J. became Superior, serving until 1934. Francis J. Kelly, S.J. again served as Superior from 1935 until 1939 when Thomas J. Feeney, S.J. assumed the office. In 1945, Walter J. Ballou, S.J. served as Superior and in 1952, Dennis T. Tobin, S.J. became Superior. In 1958, James H. Barry, S.J. served in the position and in 1964, William A. Connelly, S.J. became Superior. In 1970, Robert J. Carr, S.J. assumed the office and in 1973, Lawrence A. Burke, S.J. served as Superior. In 1979, Kenneth J. Hughes, S.J. was Superior and in 1986, John J. Bresnahan, S.J. served. In 1991, Thomas H. Schneider, S.J. became Superior and in 1997, James F. Webb, S.J., of the English Canada Province, assumed the office. In 2006, Peter J. McIsaac, S.J., also of the English Canada Province, became Superior and served until 2012 when Christopher G. Llanos, S.J. of the English Canada Province became Superior.

In 1962, the country of Jamaica became independent from Britain, ending its 300 year colonization. In 1980, the status of the Jamaica Mission was changed to that of a Dependent Region by Father General Pedro Arrupe, S.J.

On November 23, 2014, the Dependent Region of Jamaica was suppressed by decree of Father General Adolfo Nicolas, S.J. and its members and works became an independent community of the New England Province.

On December 3, 2014, the New England and New York Province united to form the USA Northeast Province.

Historical Background of Jamaica Mission / Region Collection:

From Rev. Thomas McCoog, SJ book, A Guide to Jesuit Archives 122-23.

Rev. Gerard McLaughlin, SJ, Archivist of the Archdiocese of Kingston, Jamaica wrote the text

“It was decided in 1992 to establish formally an archive for the work of the Jesuits in Jamaica since 1837. Records in Jamaica were few and quite scattered. The tradition had remained to file all records at the home office or province or, since the destiny of the local church was both Roman Catholic and Jesuit, to file records in the archdiocesan archives. Thus, the records for the years 1837 to 1894 can be found with the English Jesuits at their archives in London, since the English Jesuits staffed Jamaica during that period. The period 1894 to 1927 has its records with the New York Jesuits. The New England Jesuits have been responsible for the Jamaican records from 1927 to the present. Another source of records is the Jesuit curia in Roma since it is a practice that Jesuits copy many records to the office of Father General in Rome.

The Archdiocese of Kingston maintains its own archives and because the mission was primarily staffed by Jesuits, much of the work of the Jesuits is also documented in the archdiocesan archives. The Jesuit Archives are very thin with very little material: most of the documentation is of recent origin—within the last half century. Except for photocopies made from the English and American archives, little is available for the period 1837 to 1940. Although the history of the Catholic Church in Jamaica was written by Fr. Francis X. Delaney, SJ in 1925, little of the material that he must have collected is still available. Fr. Osborne’s book on the history of Jamaica in 1988 also contains lots of history, but the primary documents on which it was based cannot be easily located.

The records for St. George’s College, which was established in 1850, are extremely sparse and do not contain much of substance until the 1960s. The Jesuit Archives on Jamaica grew out of the research of its archivist and focused mainly on two subjects: the work and career of Fr. Joseph J. Williams, SJ in Jamaica from 1912 until 1918 and the work of Fr. John Peter Sullivan, SJ from 1939 until 1975. These record sets are rich compared to some other archival record areas because the archivist shared his personal research during his years in Jamaica.”

Additional information: In 2003, most of the records kept in Jamaica were sent from Jamaica to the Archives of the New England Jesuit Province in Worcester, MA. There are still some materials on the island. The records of Fr. Joseph J. Williams, SJ remain in Jamaica. Also, a small collection of original diaries are still on the island including diaries for the parishes of Savannah-La-Mar, Montego Bay, and Reading for the periods 1940 until 1960. These diaries are kept in the Blessed Sacrament Cathedral Rectory in Montego Bay. Please contact the Archdiocese of Kingston archivist for more information.

Processing Notes:

In 2003, most of the records kept on Jamaica were sent from Jamaica to the Archives of the New England Jesuit Province. At that time, every attempt was made to maintain the order set up by the Jamaican Archivist, Rev. Gerard McLaughlin, SJ, per his outline in the Rev. Thomas McCoog, SJ book, A Guide to Jesuit Archives. In 2011, the Jamaica Mission/Region papers were processed by the standards of the Archives of the New England Province of the Society of Jesus. Files were arranged by provenance of office, as far as could be determined. The Jamaica Mission / Region Records were arranged following schemes already in use by the

Archives of the New England Province Society of Jesus

New England Jesuit Archives. The Series arrangement mirrors that of the RG 11.1 Missions Offices Records and RG 1 Records of Fr. Provincial. As a records management process, all general material about a work or place in Jamaica that was transferred to the Archives from either the New England Missions Offices or from Jamaica was consolidated in the RG 11.2 Jamaica Mission / Region, Places / Works series, and any additional material transferred will be filed here. At this time, arrangement and box/folder lists are complete for all series and special collections except Jesuit Social Ministries.

See: the Prior Series Description (Crosswalk) for information and references to the current location of that material.

Scope and Content:

The Records of the Mission Region consist of approximately 20 linear feet, dating from 1838-2000. The papers from the 1800s are facsimile photocopies.

The Records of the Mission / Region are arranged into the following series: Superiors Files, Historical, Personnel, Places / Works, and Planning. The Superiors Files Series contain meeting materials from committees, conference, congregations and councils, Consultors records, Contracts and other legal documents, for example, land transfers, correspondence with Frs. General, Bishops, Frs. Provincial, members of the mission/region, mission stations and apostolates, Superiors' circular letters, and a few subject files. The Historical Series are divided into three segments: before the New England Province was assigned the Jamaica Mission, after the New England Province assumed the administration of Jamaica Mission and the Country of Jamaica, mostly files about Roman Catholic activities in Jamaica. The historical files contain reports on the Jamaica Mission, information about the 1907 earthquake, Hurricane Gilbert in 1988, and files related to the Catholic Opinion newspaper. The Personnel Series contains records, such as, annual status assignments and vow documents, and individual files of Jesuits assigned to the Jamaica mission. The personnel files of individuals are restricted. The Places / Works series is divided into two sub-series: Kingston and vicinity and Outside Kingston. This follows the arrangement of the Province catalogs and the Missions Office Photograph Collection. This series contains anniversary or general descriptive material. As a records management process, all general material about a work or place in Jamaica that was transferred from either the New England Mission Offices or from Jamaica has been consolidated in this series. The Planning Series consists of records kept by Fr. Michael D. Linden, S.J., from 1986 through the 1990s.

Chronology of the Society of Jesus in Jamaica, 1837-2014

- 1837 The English Province of the Society of Jesus supplied missionaries to Jamaica.
- 1893 Rome entrusted the Jamaican mission to the American Province of Maryland-New York after the English Provincial wrote to Rome requesting the change. Rome had just given the English Province the Zambezi, Africa mission. Jamaica still remained a British colony, however.
- 1896 Province of Maryland-New York requested a clear distinction between the property owned by the Vicariate of Jamaica and that owned by the Society of Jesus. The long-time Vicar Apostolic of Jamaica was Charles Gordon.
- 1907-1918 John J. Collins, S.J. became the Administrator Apostolate upon the retirement of Charles Gordon.
- 1907 An earthquake hit Jamaica on January 14, ruining much of the city of Kingston and killing over 1,000 inhabitants. The earthquake toppled the Holy Trinity Church where 20,000 Catholics worshipped.
- 1910 A newly erected Holy Trinity Church was completed.
- 1908-1919 Fr. Collins erected nineteen chapels throughout the island.
- 1919-1926 William F. O'Hare, S.J. became Vicar Apostolic of Jamaica. The mission was near bankruptcy when he assumed office and within nine months, the debt had been reduced to half the original.
- 1925 There were 98 Jesuit scholastic novices in the Maryland-New York Province and 53 in the Vice Province of New England.
- 1926 The New England Vice-Province separated from the Maryland-New York Province to form an independent Province. The Philippines were assigned to the Maryland-New York Province and Jamaica was assigned to the newly formed New England Province.
- 1927 Joseph N. Dinand, S.J. was named Vicar Apostolic of Jamaica, who left his post as President of the College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, MA to assume his new duties. Fr. Dinand was the first Vicar Apostolic chosen by the newly formed New England Province, although the New England Province did not assume control of Jamaica until 1929.
- 1929 Joseph N. Dinand, S.J. had to resign as Vicar Apostolic of Jamaica due to ill health, however, he had worked to set up a native religious congregation on the island. He helped found a native Sisterhood with a Franciscan Sister on the island, Sister Humiliana.
- 1929 Franciscan Missionary Sisters of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, the native Sisterhood movement's new institution, began.
