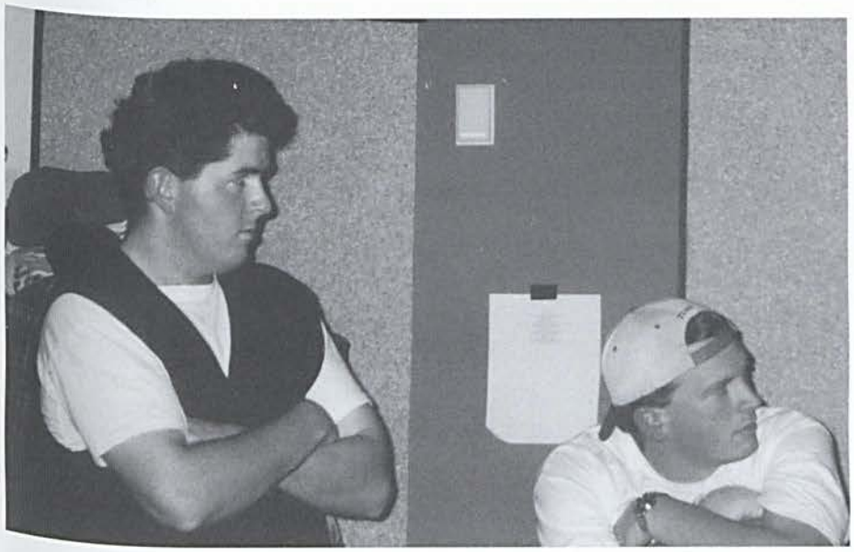
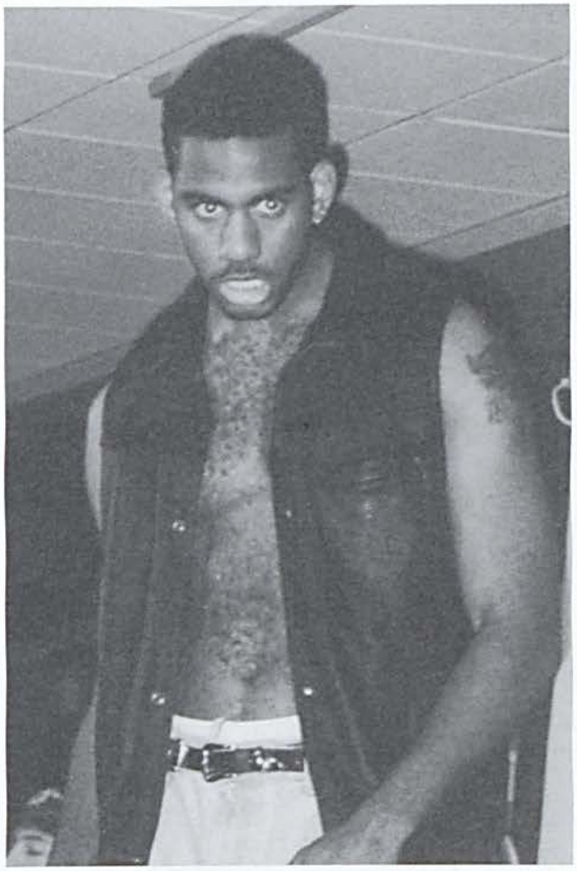
IN POOR TASTE





Kimball food in the morning, this thing I'm eating I think that its moving never tastes any good, the food sucks especially on weekends. We think they're trying to kill us, serving us crap day in and day out, but we never say a thing, we get the Sh*ts and come back for more. Take your chances, Kimball food really bites the big one, all of the time, avoid the shepherd's pie. Goin' to Late Night at Caro, drinkin' a beer and smokin' a fat one, you don't remember a thing, passed out under the table and pukin'. Take your chances, you never know who you'll hook up with, may look good now, but wait 'til you sober up. Driving around in this city, all these bars and up on the campus, J. Crew in every direction, no condoms exchanged no kegs in the dorms, oh we thought we would be really funny, it would be great to keep to all your money, and take it down to the Cape, and take it down to the Cape in May.

Success

to have laughed often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition, to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded.

May the Lord bless you and keep you

Love Always,

"Holy Cross or Bust" & "Ten Reasons to Yes" are phrases we knew well, they'd be a major factor in your future - we could tell.
So off you went to Worcester, with "everything" in hand, you studied hard, made lots of friends and finished up your plans.
It's over now, time passes by, and it'll be hard to say "good - bye",
To strangers who became great friends, and relationships that will never end,
To Holy Cross and Kimball Hall, you're certainly going to miss them all.
So make a promise to keep in touch with the school and the friends you love so much.
We're so proud of you and your success - and we wish you, Nikki, the very best.
