Log House at Camp
April 6. 1863

My Dear Jennie:

I received the enclosed letter from Mr.
Wilson. An answer has been sent. You will please preserve the Senators letter.

I expected to hear from you tonight. but did not. Oh! Jennie, dont commenece that imitation of your regretful husband. While often.

The President was here to-day receiving this Corps.
I wish you were here darling.
I am down upon Y. Brooks for sending the Ladies off-the wretched old Dach.

There is no immediate prospect of a move.

By the way that "Eneas Smith" has complained to the Governor about my punishment of those two deserters, and the Governor has referred the matter to my friend Giffen.
I am sorry that the Gov. noticed that clique of all - but no matter the deserters have been punished, and the statement which I made to Giffen will be sent to Gov. Andrew who will read no doubt my opinion of the North End faction, to Mr. Smith who will be delighted thereof!

Give my warmest regards to Mrs. Boyle and warmest kisses to sweet little Lodie Ever Yours
Giffen
